Dr. Harrington

To the Members of the
Class of 1978:

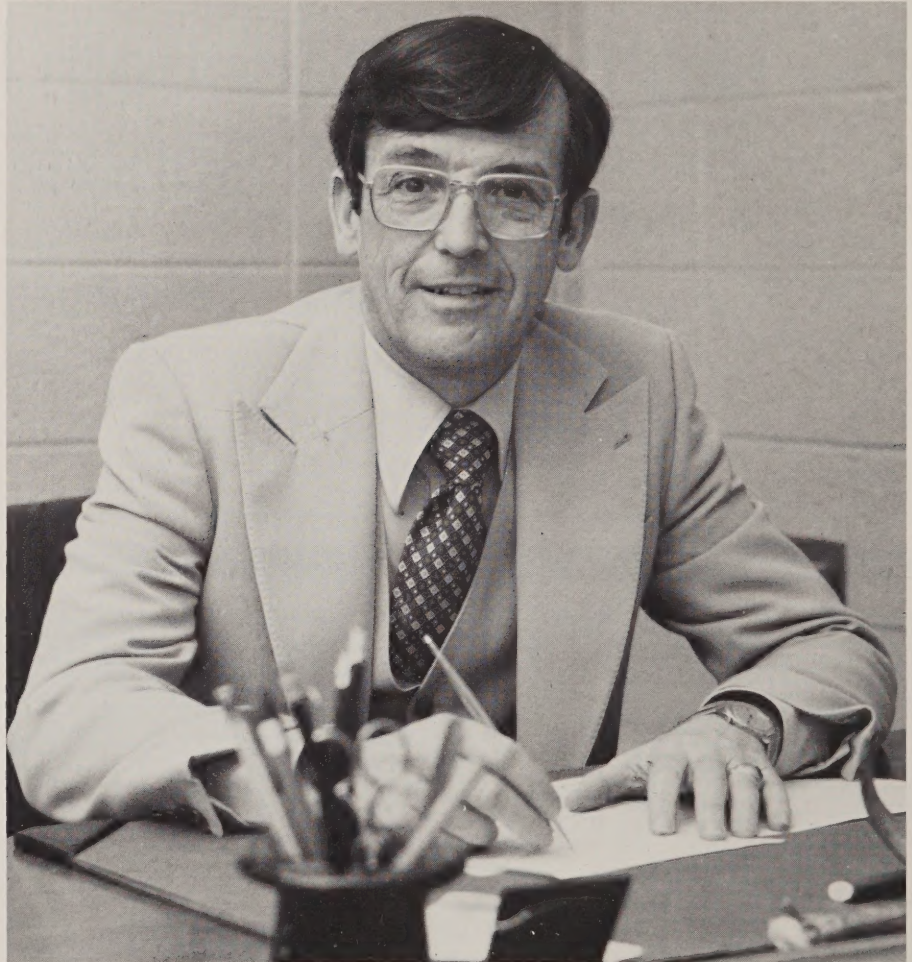

Congratulations!

Graduation from high school is a milestone that becomes a permanent part of one's memory. For most of us, it is the first significant goal we achieved which by and large, is the direct result of our own effort and ability. Your twelve years in our school system, particularly the past four years at D—R, should provide some happy memories, a feeling of accomplishment, and the initiative and desire to make your mark in the world. We are happy to be a part of your past and we anticipate you will have a happy, bright, interesting, challenging and fulfilling future. It's up to you! Good luck!

Very truly yours,

Joseph C. Harrington,
Ed. D.

Superintendent of Schools

Those were the good old days . . .

We in the Class of '78 have tried to leave our mark on D—R. As freshmen, the Christmas Bazaar, and original idea, met with success through a concerted, freshman effort. Brimming with pride, we became the wealthiest class by the overwhelming sophomore calendar drive. Success went hand in hand with togetherness. Another Christmas Bazaar and a spring dance wrapped up '76. Smaller money making events were overshadowed by the emotion-packed competition of the first annual Spirit Week.

Jobs and college plans suddenly became a prime concern for us seniors. But with all our projects and committees, apathy was hard to find. Yearbook sales and the CSF drive were the highest in school history. We dominated Spirit Week, even defeated our oldest competitor, the class of '79. 1977 ended with a semi-formal Christmas Dance, cosponsored by us and the juniors. Senior Supper began 1978 with the realization that, soon, all would come to an end. The school year closed with a smashing Senior Class Play, a memorable prom, and a thankful graduation.

CLASS OF 1979

As in the two previous years, the Class of 1979 was extremely busy. This year the class directed its fund-raising efforts toward financing their Junior Prom, thus distinguishing itself as the first class in four years to hold a prom in its junior year.

The months leading up to the Prom were hectic ones for all Juniors. Getting off to a quick start, the class of 1979 worked to instill school spirit by selling spirit buttons and pennants, holding a spirit dance, and co-sponsoring a successful fall sports pep rally.

Despite a disappointing finish during Spirit Week, the class continued its practice of establishing new traditions and upsetting old ones. With an incredible effort by artists and other class members, the Juniors came up with some of the best and freshest ideas to tie the Seniors in the hall decorating contest, proving successfully that D-R really has "the Best of Everything."

During the Christmas season, the Juniors co-sponsored the traditional Christmas Dance with the Seniors. Lavish decorations, good music, and a lot of Christmas cheer made for a memorable evening for all.

Continuing their efforts into spring, the Juniors raised necessary funds for an excellent prom. After weeks of planning, the big event finally took place on May 26. A fun evening of dancing and excitement was the end result of their hard work.

During the year the Class of 1979 worked hard, having much fun in the process. The success of this year proves again that the Class of 1979 is truly one of the most united and spirited in D-R history.

CLASS OF 1980

The class of 1980 is enjoying and even more prosperous and spirited year as sophomores than they did as freshmen. Our first project as sophomores was the annual calendar sale. The class successfully completed this important event by selling almost 3,000 calendars and making a profit of about 2,000 dollars.

At the end of January, the sophomore class sponsored a "Canteen" which was similar to a Record Hop. Many students were present and everyone had a great time!

Future events for our class: rings and the possibility of a spring dance in April.

The class of 1980 plans to seek many new horizons throughout the remaining years left before graduation.

Civics

The Class of 1981 began this school year lacking identity. Soon, however, they distinguished themselves as a strong and unified group.

During Spirit Week, the "Itty Bitty" Freshmen with the help of their class advisor, Mrs. Ives, finished an unexpected, but powerful, second in class competition. Another mark of success for the class was the Freshman Football team's impressive record. These achievements combined with the stunning performance of the Freshman Basketball team and the talent of other Freshman athletes points to a very successful future for the D-R athletic program.

The class of '81 with the great feeling of class pride and unity that has accompanied these victories is certain to become one of the most distinguished classes at Dighton-Rehoboth.

The Freshmen wish the members of the class of '78 good luck and success in their future.

The 1977-78 year of Student Government has been active. Student Government had their annual Thanksgiving drive. It was the best in the school's history, making 33 baskets and collecting over $700.

Other activities the Student Government sponsored were a Bloodmobile on December 19, a candy sale with profits going to scholarships, a fall convention at Falmouth and the annual Ham and Bean supper on March 16 which raised over $600 for scholarships.

This year's Latin Club got off to a late start. After the first few meetings, an open trip to Brown University was arranged to participate in their annual Latin Carol Service. A combined French-Latin Club Christmas Party was cancelled because of unforeseen events.

This spring holds a trip to Boston and the annual Ides of March — Mr. Frates Birthday Party.

French Club

The members of the 1977-78 French Club (dedicated people that they are!) belong to several other D-R activities. However, several interesting (very interesting!) meetings were squeezed into the hectic calendar. After an organizational meeting, we celebrated Halloween with a French costume party.

A few weeks later we learned about French culture from a guest speaker. And, on a crisp, December morning, who can forget the serenade over the P.A. of "foreign" Christmas carols? That, my friend, was the French Club!

Special thanks are extended to Mrs. Ring from the graduating Seniors for her special dedication over the past four years to our French Club.

What exactly did the National Honor Society do? Did we sit around studying? No way! We helped out at the reception honoring Mr. Roy in November, and also during Parents' Week at D-R. Cross Country

In the minds of many, this year's cross-country team was the best in the school's history, although its record, 3-9, does not reflect this. Besides being placed in a tough S.M.C. Division I West, the team was hindered by the fact that there were few returning varsity runners. With many spots on the team to fill, Coach Marsden was forced to call on the team's legion of freshmen. Jim Creel, Scott Eaton and Tom White responded well to this challenge.

The varsity was rounded out by Sophomore Armand Gendreau, Junior Bob Rose, and Co-Captain Kevin Durand, who was named to the Conference All-Star Team.

With practically all of this hardworking team returning next year, Coach Marsden should have a contender on his hands in the near future.

It started out with a bang but gradually went down hill. The opening day game was won for the first time in 7 years. After the first game, the hopes of the team were focused on a big season and a spot on top. With a starting squad of predominantly seniors, most who had been around for four years, the future looked bright. But then the injuries started to hit, and the season crumbled beneath our feet. It was not a season for winning but a season for experience. As grim as it was, everyone worked as hard as they possibly could, and no one gave up. For Lee, Paul, Jeff, Glenn, Gary, Dave D., Kevin, Ken, Mike, Wayne, Tom, Teddy, Hans, Ed, Glen Mac, and Co-Captains Bob and Dave L., it was a season that always will be remembered.

Field Hockey

Varsity: Row 1: D. Houghton, K. McCrohan, E. Kinder, M. Rourke, E. Costa, J. Maltais, Row 2: S. Martin, L. Abrams, D. August, J. Brechin, P. Katon, Z. Berghman, Mrs. Hayward

Junior Varsity: Row 1: L. Pomfret, K. Williams, K. Macado, Row 2: C. Sherman, C. Corrao, K. O'Brien, L. Ferreira, S. Sherman, Row 3: N. Souza, D. Duarte, E. Rourke, L. Ridgeon, S. Simmons

Since its inception three years ago, the field hockey team has established a fine reputation. Senior co-captains, Margaret Rourke and Elaine Kinder, led the team to their first division championship. Five players were chosen to be on the All-Star Team. They were Margaret Rourke, Elaine Kinder, Karen McCrohan, Jean Brechin, and Zoe Berghman. After an undefeated season, the team lost in the first round of the state tournament to Barnstable. The season's final record was 8 wins-1 loss-4 ties.

Cheering and Falconeers

Neither rain, nor sleet, nor snow . . .

Football cheerleading in New England in the fall can be a challenge, but this year's cheerleading squad braved the weather with great enthusiasm. The girls could truly be called cheer leaders, for their spirit reached the fans as game after game their cheers rose above the crowd. The fun and the pride could be felt with each "We are from D-R High!". In years to come the sound will still echo.

As always, good leadership is important in any group, and this year's senior members proved themselves to be an added asset to the successful squad.

Top to Bottom: B. Borden, K. Paradis, L. Burda, L. Manchester, M. Benoit, P. DeRoche, C. Phillips, K. Chase, J. Ryder, D. Pontes, D. Paradis

Majorettes: Jo-Ellen Gallant, Donna Patterson, Marilyn Snape, Lynn Dary, Joanne Collis

The clock nears half-time. A wave of green and gold moves toward the football field. The rustle of shakers blowing in the wind is heard. Suddenly the drummers burst into a cadence. There are all those dedicated marchers plowing steadily through the mud. Even after hectic rehearsals, the Falconeers are always willing to cheer on their team, whatever the weather or score!

Spirit Week '77

Excitement . . . Confusion . . . Pennies (thousands of pennies!) . . . Green and Gold and Green and Gold and more Green and Gold! Does this bring back memories? Well it should, because those were all important parts of Spirit Week '77. Starting with Monday, November 21, and concluding on Wednesday, the week was a hectic mixture of interclass competition, recognition of Fall Sports, and a super rally to wish success to the Football team on Thanksgiving Day. There were many special moments throughout the events; terrific faculty participation, the unbelievable amount of money donated toward the Thanksgiving basket drive, the "T.P." race (?), but most of all, the proof that there is a great school spirit under all of the class rivalry. Although the Seniors walked (or rather jumped and screamed and yelled) away with the overall victory, the Freshmen, Juniors, and Sophomores proved to be very stiff competition! All in all, Spirit Week '77 was a time to remember!

Volleyball

The inaugural girls' volleyball team took to the gym this year after hurtling some usual starting problems. No one could predict what the season would bring after that first game. While performing very well against other novice teams, they could not conquer the veteran teams. Ending the season with a strong victory against Coyle-Cassidy was only surpassed by the memorable shaving cream attack back at D-R.

Some games just did not seem worthy of the long practices and suicides, but after the first win, everything seemed to pull together. The memories of the '77 "Out to Lunch" team will always remain alive. Our final record: 3 wins and 10 losses.

WINTER

Senior Supper

After a late start day at school, a trip back to school on icy roads, and a few preliminary introductions, the 1978 Senior Supper was underway;! Everyone enjoyed the food, which was excellently prepared by the cafeteria staff, and the company of good friends. Thanks to a few hard-working people, the supper was a great success. The superlatives were announced and the winners were surprised, embarrassed, and even honored in some cases. Paul Phillips ended the evening with a great speech that reminded the senior class of the seriousness of the night, while easing the pain of saying goodbye to some friends graduating early.

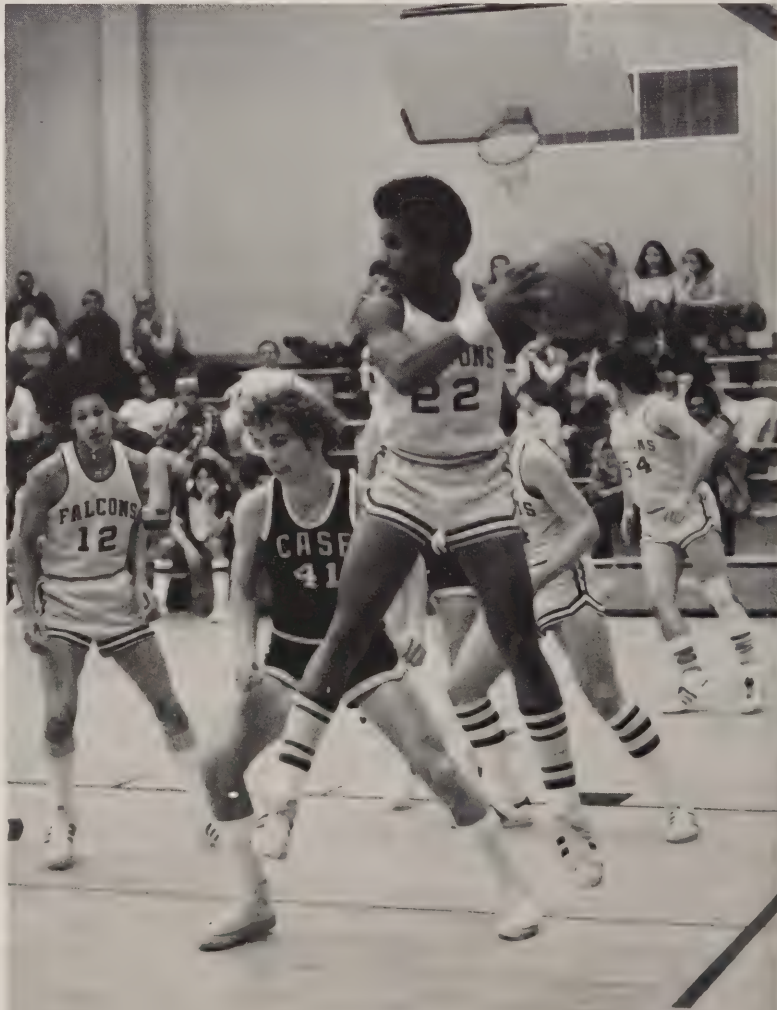

Basketball

Varsity: Row 1: B. MacDonald, W. Alexander, P. Phillips, M. Edmonds, H. Paulsen, C. Nichols, Row 2: Mr. Field, B. Grover, R. Monteiro, B. Hawes, K. McGillivray, R. Dary, S. Cole, K. Gouveia

When it was all over, the slate read: 5 wins and 9 losses in division, 8 wins and 12 losses over all. Though defeats outnumber victories, the 11 members of the year's varsity basketball squad have nothing to be ashamed of. All winter long the Falcons provided their loyal legion of fans with a hustling, scrappy brand of basketball, and if they didn't lead the league in wins, they must have led it in floor burns. The green and gold hoopsters came roaring out of the gates with a 3-0 record and though the going became much tougher after that sparkling start, the all-senior squad years hence will be able to claim that they are the team which gave Coach Field his first opening game victory in his varsity coaching career.

Some highlights? The opening night victory over Bristol-Plymouth where the Falcons came close to blowing B-P out of the gym and onto the adjacent parking lot, the ulcer-inducing battle with B-R two nights later where the Falcons pulled out a victory in the final minute, the heartbreaking 6 point loss to Coyle after the green and gold had battled their more talented rivals on even terms all game long, and the stomping of Westport up in Westport after D-R had waltzed through a lackluster first half. The preceding are some of the reasons why the basketball squad can leave their hoop career at Dighton-Rehoboth with their heads held high.

Slip slidin' away
Slip slidin' away
You know the nearer your destination
The more you're slip slidin' away.

Paul Simon's song accurately describes the winter track team this year. Because of injuries and a lack of members, the season's record was not as good as it could have been. Nevertheless, D-R's tracksters captured some divisional titles. Rich Moschella made a comeback at the divisional meet to place first in a record breaking 1000 win. Other first place winners were Elaine Costa, hurdles; David Horton, shotput; and Cheryl Martin, 300. The girls captured the divisional title.

All the members worked really hard but we had too many outstanding performances to write them all down. Next year come to the meets and see for yourselves!

Girl's Basketball

Varsity: Row 1: C. Kovatsi, S. Estey, E. Kinder, M. Rouke, Row 2: Miss Unsworth, J. Simmons, L. Smith, S. Rivet

This year's varsity basketball team was led by senior co-captains Margaret Rourke and Elaine Kinder. The team was solid and displayed a growing unity throughout the season. Playing a difficult schedule, they had more than their share of wins, with a final record of 9-6. Elaine, Margaret, and Sue Estey, all four year veterans, will be difficult to replace.

The junior varsity season was equally exciting, and even more successful than the varsity season. A thrilling one-point victory over the first place team late in the season proved that D-R was improving with every game. Several players promise to add new life to the varsity team, while others will see the J.V. team on to a possible (probable) championship next year. The final record was 13-2.

Junior Varsity: Row 1: L. Perreira, S. Lamb, L. Dilorio, C. Withers, K. Paradis, Row 2: Mrs. Hayward, L. Pidgeon, N. Souza, E. Rourke, C. Pelletier, L. Smith

Cheerleaders

Row 1: S. Sherman, M. Corrigan, Row 2: S. Wade, K. Holme
Davis, S. Roy, L. Guertin, Row 3: P. Bergeron, S. Paiva, T.
Wade

Gymnastics

S. Sherman, L. Olsen, D. Davis, T. Cory, Row 2: K. Paradis, S. Wade, K. Jecoy, D. Plante, K. Nichols, J. Wade, B. Grassie

The Gymnastics Club Team worked their way to another successful and fortunate year. The '78 season ended with 7 wins and one setback at the hands of Somerset, the eventual state champions. Co-captains Kathleen Rose and Jackie Wade finished 1-2 in team scoring. Kathleen also qualified for the State Individual Championships in Framingham. The team members also showed an excellent performance all year round, working hard at each meet and each practice. With the loss of the two top all-around gymnasts, the young club faces a rebuilding but promising year in 78-79.

Amahl and the Night Visitors

An Opera, At D-R?

The Drama and Music Departments combined their talents on December 16 and 17 to present the first opera in D-R's history. Amahl and the Night Visitors, a Christmas musical by Gian-Carlo Minotti, was the culmination of three and a half months of hard work and long hours of rehearsal.

An opera is a difficult, challenging piece of work to present, but the cast presented Amahl with style, grace, and beauty. Jane McCombs as Amahl and Lisa Lach as her mother sang the lead roles and captivated the audiences during both performances. Greg Rassol, Joe Amaral, and David Strange, as the Three Kings, and Lance Dary as their Page not only sang their roles impressively, but also added glamour to the show with their elaborate costumes.

A special folk dance was skillfully performed by dancers Cheryl Derlien, Laurie Prairie, Robert Reed and Glenn Souza.

Completing the cast were shepherds Lynn Dary, Eric Ennes, Sandy Henrique, Deby Jecoy, Patricia Katon, Susan Martin, Joan McEvoy, Scott Meager, Sue Pelletier, Cheryl Phillips, Libby Pomfret, Jill Spiegler, and John Sweeney.

The entire D-R chorus, located in the pit, provided extra depth and volume to complement the actors on stage. A full orchestra (another first for D-R) under the direction of Robert W. Otto handled the difficult musical score brilliantly.

Amahl was staged under the direction of Edward Martin, Head Drama Coach, and Andre Descoteaux provided the expert musical direction.

SPRING

Senior Class Play

That special time of year rolled around once again and D-R's senior class prepared for their play, Agatha Christie's "Ten Little Indians." The cast worked many long hours in order to present the play with the style and professionalism that it had. The superb acting and a realistic setting led the audience to believe that they actually were on Indian Island during a fierce storm. As the play progressed, a wave of excitement flowed through the audience as everyone wondered "Whodunnit?" And the suspect list kept on shrinking and shrinking! A surprise ending shocked everyone, while adding to their pleasure. Special congratulations are awarded to the cast which included: Ginny Chase, Gerald Curry, Erik Eckilson, David Ennis, Al Hass, Grace Johnston, Evelyn Libby, Paula Marcoux, Donna Mondor, Ray Monteiro, Kevin Portella, Margaret Rourke, and Chris Withers. Congratulations also to a hard-working production staff, headed by Linda Goudreau, the stage crew, and especially to the directors, Mr. Martin, Mr. Ohrenberger, and student director, Elaine Kinder.

Math League

Row 1: T. Johnson, C. Pontes, B. Borden, Mr. Rabouin, C. Ennes, Row 2: P. Evans, G. Cloutier, D. DeAmaral, E. Herjpe, L. Goudreau, R. Wallace, J. Torres, L. Marcoux, R. Nowell, G. Curry

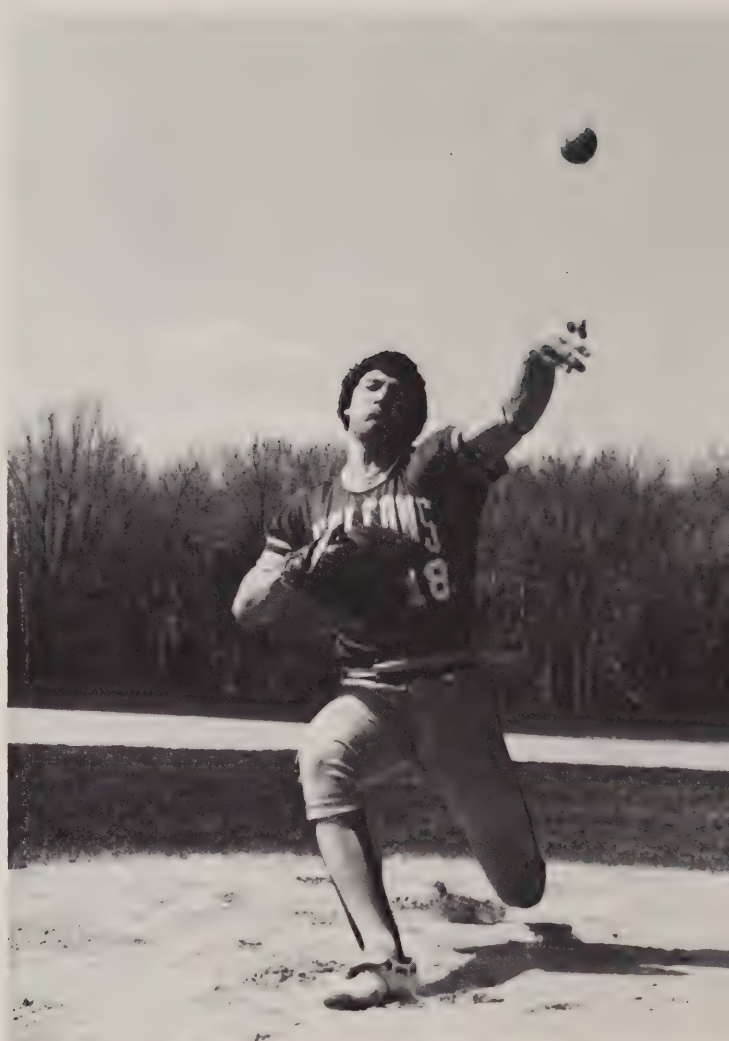

The 1978 Math team ended their season co-champions in the Southeastern Massachusetts Math League. To keep morale high, we managed to arrange a trip to B. B. Binks and Lorenzo's. But the bright spot of the year was the pool party, complete with stereo, dunkings, and the annual eating contest. Already we are planning for next year, though we're sorry to see the class of '78 leave.

Chess Team

Baseball

The 1978 varsity Falcon Baseball team checked in with a 10-10 overall record and an 8-6 divisional mark. Conquests came over DIMAN (twice), COYLE (twice), BISHOP FEEHAN (twice), CONNOLLY, WESTPORT, and NEW BEDFORD VOKE (twice). Three year varsity performer, Bob MacDonald, and two year varsity performer, Craig Nichols, co-captained the squad. A pair of lefties headed up the D-R hitting attack as "Mac" and John Paradis tied for the team lead in hits by drilling out 24 apiece. Without a doubt, the green and gold's best performance of the year came in the season's last game as the team's five seniors said good-bye to D-R athletics when the Falcons impressively knocked Connolly out of a state tourney berth 2-0.

Varsity: Row 1: S. Cole, P. Pappas, C. Nichols, R. McDonald, S. Meager, J. Paradis, Row 2: T. O'Connell, C. Day, K. Ross, D. St. Pierre, W. Cliffore, B. Steele, P. Bliss, T. Gonzalski, Coach Ruggerio

The girl's tennis team didn't win the league championship this year, but their dedication, hard work, and good sportsmanship allowed them to enjoy a fun season. Led by co-captains Carol Pearson and Collette Pelletier, both sophomores, the team faced a rough schedule and always played to the best of their ability. This year was a building year for the team with only three seniors graduating. In the future, the D-R girl's tennis team will be a significant league challenger.

The Girl's Track Team was loaded with spirit and talent this year. They managed to capture a good third place seat in their division with a record of 6-2.

A large group of girls qualified for the state class meet. Diane Paradis, Diane Houghton, Mariellen Murphy, Zoe Berghman, Cheryl Martin, Kathy Sherman, Debbie Duarte, Liz Perreira, Sue Mann, and Lissa Olsen were all participants. A first for D-R, three girls qualified for state finals. They were Cheryl Martin, 440, Diane Paradis, high jump, and Debbie Duarte, discus.

The team also received state recognition at the state coaches relay meet and the Falmouth invitational meet. There were excellent performances by all the girls involved in both meets.

Softball

Front: Lynn Smith, Lois Dubois, Elaine Kinder, Joyce Baker, Karen McCrohan, Ellie McCrohan, Back: Carol Withers, Lisa Dutra, Lori Dilorio, Lori Smith, Norma Souza, Rose Kishfy, Lisa St. Jean, Sharon Rivet, Ms. Unsworth

D-R's Girl's Softball team returned this year with nine experienced varsity players. The five seniors on this year's squad were: Lois Dubois, Karen McCrohan, and tri-captains, Elaine Kinder, Joyce Baker, and Margaret Rourke. Players nominated to the All-Star team were: Elaine, Joyce, and Karen McCrohan.

The team finished their season as co-champs of their division with a 10-1 record. During the state tournament, D-R handily defeated D-Y and went on to face some rather difficult opponents. The girls should definitely be proud of the achievement this year.

Golf

Row 1: K. Gobin, G. Leroux, M. Weeks, M. Mondor, T. Truesdale, Row 2: R. Noelte, S. Simmons, Mr. Cute, M. Piquette, C. Minardi

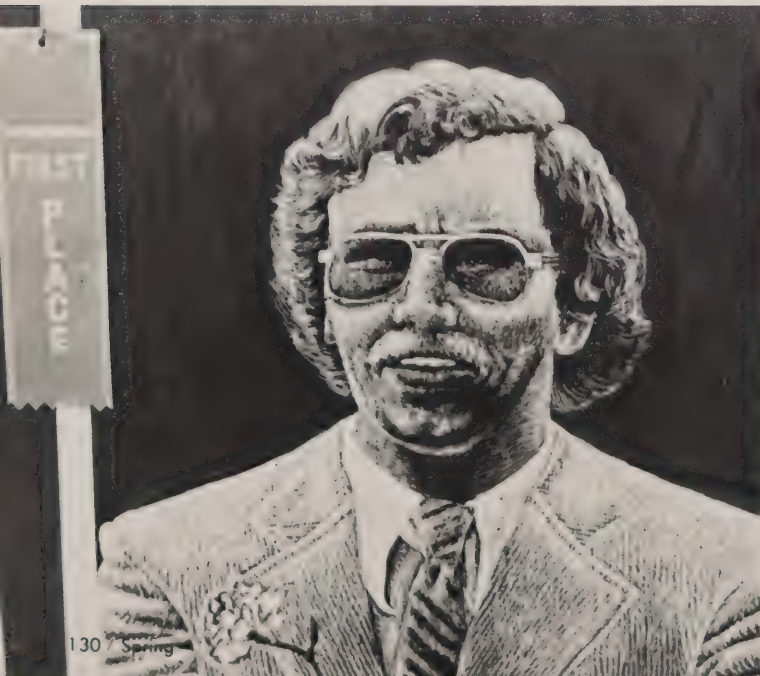

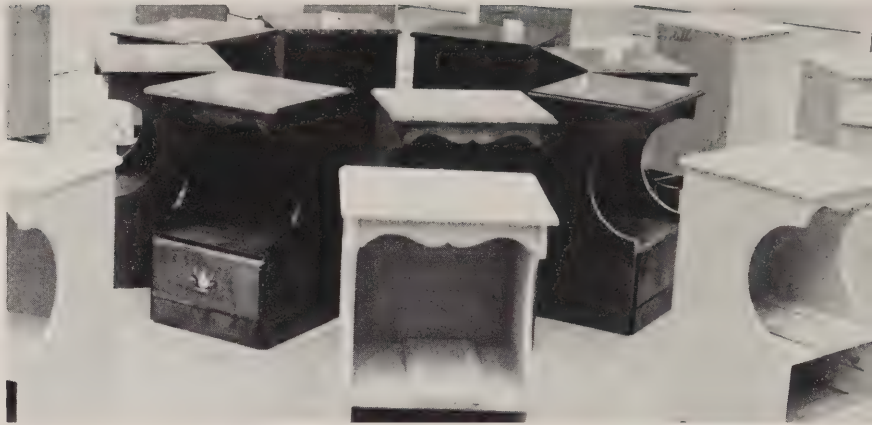

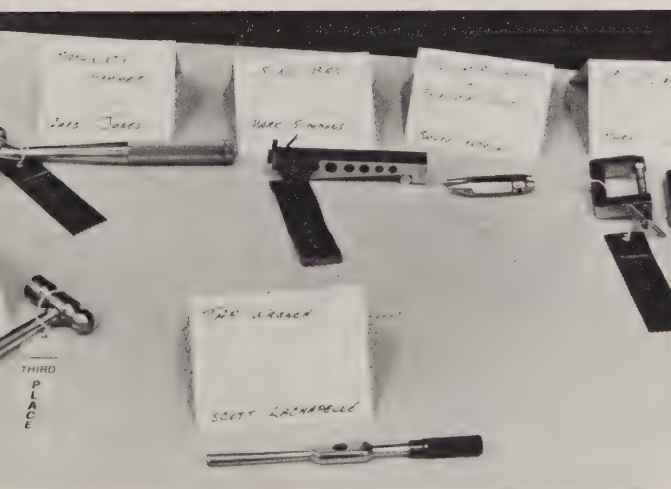

Spring Concert

Another concert? But they just gave one! Well, on May 19, it was concert time again at D-R. After just six weeks of post-exchange concert rehearsal, the band and chorus geared up for their annual spring concert, performed in conjunction with the fine arts night. The chorus featured such popular songs as "Come Sail Away" by Styx and Queen's "Somebody to Love." Also included was the beautiful piece by Brahms, "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place." The band treated the audience to "Just You 'N Me" originally recorded by Chicago, "Instant Concert," a collection of well-known tunes, and some traditional pieces. A combined number "Oh, Brother Man!" was very well done, reflecting the concert as a whole.

Art Show

Senior Prom

After the flashcubes stopped popping at home, everyone headed for the Coachman restaurant in Tiverton, Rhode Island. More pictures, a prime rib dinner, and music by Sage followed. D-R couples danced late into the night and crawled home early the next morning. All in all, it was a very memorable evening.

Graduation

Four short years, hundreds of memories, friends, teachers, and suddenly . . . Graduation! The Class of '78 moved out of D-R and into the world on June 11, 1978. Gerald Curry was awarded the Robert T. Roy medal and many other students received recognition for their achievements in many scholastic fields. Everyone waited patiently to hear his or her name and (finally!) see the result of twelve years of hard work (an honest-to-goodness diploma!). Through some tears, each senior said good-bye to D-R in his own way. No one can ever forget the good times shared among all here.

Senior Calendar

Sept. 7, 1977 — June 11, 1978

Sept. 7: Summer vacation comes to an end to the sound of a high pitched tone.

Sept. 8, 9: Half days. (They're trying to break us in easily.)

Sept. 13: Everyone is amazed as new doors are put up on the D-R entrance. Also, the first cross-country meet is held.

Sept. 14: The three semi-finalists from D-R in the National Merit Scholarship program are announced. They are Bev Borden, Paula Marcoux, and Gerald Curry. To break up the monotony of the usual school day, a fire drill is held.

Sept. 17: D-R's first football game is played at B-R. The Green and Gold pulled off the first opening day victory in eight years.

Sept. 20: School is dismissed after a half day as we all mourn Mr. Roy's passing.

Sept. 21: The Air Force Stage band comes to D-R to play for us.

Sept. 30: One month down, 9 to go!

Oct. 18: First term midterms. UGH!

Oct. 28: Pep Rally for the football game against Dennis-Yarmouth. Who can forget the first appearance of the famous D-R Flying Falcon?

Oct. 29: The first home game of the year against D-Y. The team lost a close one 3-0.

Oct. 29: Another first! The first dance of the year, sponsored by the Junior Class, and featuring Sen-tura.

Nov. 7: Mad rush as Seniors sign up for the Spirit Week teams. During the rest of the week, under-classmen experience the same sort of frenzy.

Nov. 9: After a second call for volunteers, the C.S.F. drive begins.

Nov. 11: Students are given a day off to celebrate Veteran's Day. Also, the first annual volleyball vs. field hockey soccer game.

Nov. 12: The Junior Miss Pageant is held at Somerset High School. Congratulations to all the girls who participated, and especially to Diane Paradis for coming in as the fourth runner-up, and to Elaine Costa who was the second runner-up.

Nov. 21-23: Spirit Week! At last, after weeks of preparation, the annual spirit week competition is underway! When it is all over, and the last of the events are finished, the Senior Class is declared the winners.

Nov. 24: Turkey Day! Unfortunately, Seekonk's turkey tastes a little bit better as they defeat the Falcons 20-0. Before the game, the athletic fields are dedicated to the memory of Mr. Robert T. Roy.

Nov. 28: Today is the official beginning of the winter sports season.

Dec. 14: A basketball pep rally is held in the gym. The Varsity goes on to win their first game.

Dec. 16, 17: D-R's first opera is performed with style and class. Ahmal and the Night Visitors is a memorable event.

Dec. 17: The Junior and Senior classes co-sponsor a Christmas Dance featuring Mist.

Dec. 23: The chorus presents a fine assembly featuring a wide variety of songs for the holiday season.

Dec. 24: Everyone goes frantically to the malls to do their last minute Christmas shopping.

Dec. 25: The long awaited day arrives. What did Santa bring you?

Dec. 29: The first girl's basketball game turns out to be a romp over Westport.

Dec. 31: New Year's Eve.

Jan. 1: New Year's Day. (It usually follows New Year's Eve!)

Jan. 11: Everyone gets to skip class legitimately as areana scheduling begins.

Jan. 13: Everyone gets a half day off due to the snow storm.

Jan. 16: Students are urged to use their day off to reflect upon the greatness of Martin Luther King.

Jan. 18: Late start day because of teacher workshop.

Jan. 18: Thanks to a few hard working people, the Senior Supper takes place in the cafeteria. The early graduates are honored for their accomplishment and Mr. Field distributes the Senior Superlatives.

Jan. 20: Thanks to the snow, school is called off for the day.

Feb. 6: School is dismissed at 1:00 and the Great Blizzard of 1978 begins.

Feb. 14: Who can believe that everyone is thankful to come back to school? But in returning, we forgot about the boredom and sore backs.

Feb. 20: February vacation begins just one week after the blizzard ends.

Feb. 22, 23: Two very unhappy people trudge into D-R to work on the yearbook.

Mar. 2: An assembly educates everyone in atomic energy.

Mar. 9: During the latter part of fifth period, an announcement is made to get bathing suits, surf boards, and other paraphernalia. Why? The Great Flood of B-corridor has begun in the dark room.

Mar. 15: Today is a much postponed yearbook deadline. We say good-bye to 102 pages and wave as they leave for Texas.

Mar. 22: A controversy is started at D-R after a presentation concerning the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

Mar. 24: Good Friday causes school to be dismissed at noon.

Mar. 31 — Apr. 1: The chorus and band spend the week-end in Somersworth, New Hampshire for an exchange concert.

Apr. 2: A group of mimes from Boston entertains D-R students.

Apr. 6: Plans are frantically made to buy tickets for a Fleetwood-Mac concert. A few days later when the concert is cancelled, tears are shed.

Apr. 7, 8: The Somersworth band and chorus voyages to D-R for the week-end.

Apr. 14: The Gong Show raises a good amount of money for the C.S.F.

Apr. 17-21: April vacation. But it doesn't even feel like spring.

May 2: Self-dependency begins and many seniors begin to self-destruct.

May 4, 5, 6: The Senior Class presents Agatha Christie's Ten Little Indians. A group of good actors provides the audience with three enjoyable nights.

May 5, 6: Two Cast Parties!

May 19: The Annual Spring Concert and Fine Arts Show exhibits the large amount of talent at D-R.

May 22: Work begins on the portables to turn them into Superintendent's offices. Amidst hammering and sawing, school continues in A-corridor.

May 26: The Junior Prom presents many juniors with a memorable night.

May 30: The National Honor Society inducts 9 seniors and 13 juniors.

June 1: Mr. F. (a math teacher who shall remain nameless) gives his last test to a weary Math IV class.

June 1: Mr. Sawyer gives the seniors a break and tells them that they don't have to report to classes on Friday. Thanks, Mr. S.!

June 2: The Senior Prom! At last, after literally years of planning, the class unites at the Coachman for their reception.

June 6, 7, 8, 9: The last four days before graduation are spent in learning where to sit, how to walk in, how to receive diplomas, and how much we will miss each other.

June 11: Four years boil down to one day. Amid tears, we bid good-bye to old friends, teachers, and D-R.

June 12: There is a new sense of leadership in the Junior Class. Good luck to all of you! Enjoy your senior year as much as we did!

In Memoriam:

Mr. Robert T. Roy served the Dighton-Rehoboth school district for twenty-two years. During this time, he witnessed the construction of the new high school and many of the activities within its walls and on its athletic fields. His interest in the school went much further than simply the academic realm. Mr. Roy was often seen at football games as well as dramatic productions and concerts.

The Class of 1978 would like to express their deep sorrow at the passing of Mr. Roy last autumn. He is missed by all.
